

Joe Morris on Drums

Joe Morris is the newest member of the Melody 5. He started the first week in May, 2010 after the retirement of long time (21 years) Melody 5 drummer, Tony Chudej. Joe is an accomplished drummer and vocalist who knows our music well and has been a perfect fit. He has been playing all over Central Texas for 25 years. You may have seen him with the country band, the Outlaws or a few years earlier with the Dancehall Boys from Austin. If you really want to go back a few years, how about Charlie and the Swingmasters! He is on the “A” list when someone needs a “fill in” drummer. Joe grew up in Seaton Texas, right down the road from Seaton Star Hall and Tom Sefcik’s Hall. Ah yes, another musician that perhaps Alice Sulak influenced in some way. Likely, he has spent more than a few hours at Tom Sefcik’s Hall over the years – listening to or playing music. In any event, Joe has spent plenty of time honing his skills as a musician. We welcome him to the Melody 5!
